

Washoe County, Nevada

~PROCLAMATION~

WHEREAS, The Washoe County Sheriff's Office K9 Unit relies on public donations to support the purchase of equipment; and

WHEREAS, This equipment is essential to the safety of the K9s and allows them to serve the public to their fullest capacity; and

WHEREAS, Washoe County K9 Partners is a non-profit organization designed to help Washoe County's law enforcement dogs that serve and protect our communities; and

WHEREAS, Roy Gomm Elementary School students Adelle and Elise Evans decided to hold a fundraiser at their school in January of this year to benefit Washoe County K9 Partners; and

WHEREAS, The students, faculty and families of Roy Gomm Elementary School held a "penny drive" and raised $1,743.50 to benefit K9 Partners; and

WHEREAS, A video featuring Adelle and Elise presenting the fundraising money and Roy Gomm students meeting the new K9s generated even more funding for the program;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Washoe County Board of Commissioners proclaims their heartfelt gratitude and thanks Adelle and Elise Evans and the students, faculty and families of Roy Gomm Elementary School for their extraordinary fundraising efforts, one penny at a time.

Dated this 21st day of March, 2017.
